

Description

We are proud to offer a limited edition of an original variant of the A-2 Army Air Force pilot's jacket. The A-2 Flight Jacket was introduced as official uniform wear in 1931 and permitted to be made of goatskin, even though the original specifications called for horsehide with goatskin as an alternative. Our made in USA Mustang A-2 Jacket © is a revised version of the iconic A-2 Flight Jacket. Designed to look timeless with its supple vegetable tanned goatskin leather and featuring the earlier collar stand designed for added authenticity; the Mustang A-2 Jacket © is the perfect accessory for the man who honors the history of iconic American fashion.

••Please note that each Mustang A-2 Flight Jacket is unique and its distress vegetable tanning may vary from production to production. ••
